roof front & rear also enhance seasonal enjoyment, offering superb outlook. Other items of interest also extend to ornate cornice, spa bath to main bathroom, timber mouldings, bay window appeal, internal feature brickwork, modern lighting throughout culminating in an excellent ambiance.

Trucks? – Not a problem with a separate all weather access point & driveway that leads to a stunning 18 x 13m multi purpose commercial & heavily engineered factory shed, further also an extra 10 x 7m machinery shed & concrete hardstand area compliments.

Horses? – Perfect solution, flat fenced, watered, day yard stabling & paddock usability, options are excellent for the like minded equine enthusiast. Excessive disregard by the owners for top of the line investment / on inventory will assure any prospective purchaser that nothing need be attended or added to for full on optimisation & livability.

Water storage a major emphasis along with dam water collection & peripheral irrigation to amenities & garden. Nothing has been left to chance.

Visually absorbing the property identifies unbridled value, appreciation, privacy & tranquility along with the Razorback convenience of being equidistant between Camden & Picton 10 minutes to hand also with easy access to M5 at Wilton junction. Walking the property surrounds & boundaries is a delight with manicured gardens that transition from parklike gardens to arable acres. A wonderful open view from rear boundary of productive acres assures no loss of rural attraction.
