atmosphere and a home that has been well preserved by it's long standing fastidious owners. To the right we have a separated living area with access to the rear verandah and to the left leads to an open kitchen/dining area that gives stunning sunrises from the East. The spacious kitchen has your appliances covered and the timber floor dining/second living allows families to get together comfortable.

Leading down the hall with linen cupboards we head towards four well portioned bedrooms with double wardrobes for two and a walk in robe for the main before leading into en-suite. The main bathroom is well appointed and opposite a large laundry with access to the exterior of the home.

Aesthetically pleasing the mature gardens offer rolling lawn for the family to enjoy along with established gardens, separate associated shedding, double detached garage, water tanks and veggie patch. massive potential for large shedding to potentially keep the business at home, hobbyist, car enthusiast etc.

The elements of this desirable rural residential / conveniently situated property are displayed in full. While affording an easy train commute from Douglas Park train station, outlying areas are easily reached. Convenience literally 20 minutes from university campus, retail shopping / transport facilities all located in MacArthur's hub of Campbelltown.

In summary one cant go wrong with DOUGLAS PARK'S rural residential appeal especially to alleviate the hustle & bustle of suburbia.
