The standard of this property, execution / modernization has left no stone unturned, completed by 'Anderson Building' a "sensational builder" to quote the owners. From the moment you approach & whether you walk through the wrought iron entry doors or to the side being the massive entertaining area it is plain to see that this property is complete in every regard.

A wonderful open plan living ambiance is defining & compels further intrigue. With French door access points, beautiful surroundings support a relaxed lifestyle. Several autonomous living areas pinpoint options & flexibilities. To create such a magnificent property takes vision & to pull it off takes determination without care of expense. A credit to the owners.

With (5) bedrooms if preferred (reclaim the huge walk in robe) the master suite is expansive along with all further bedrooms with built in robes, a separate designated & huge walk in robe caters for his & hers amply. A gallery media area also compliments to the first floor. The views to the rural hills are beautiful, walk to town a breeze!

In summary - Within this beautiful property, privacy, ambiance & space factor prominently - Much, much more is on offer, the devil is in the detail.
